

Dear sirs:

Do not loosen the current regulations. This is not just a business decision. This is a threat to democracy if you allow only a few people to own all the media outlets. I know you think this would be good for your political party. However, consider the possibility that those of another party could have such a monopoly. I understand your mind is made up, and you choose to ignore the peoples' voice. Unwise and unsafe and undemocratic.